Cancellation & Refunds: Travel Insurance is always recommended. Insurance options can be seen at:

<http://www.mocharaintl.com/travelinsurance.html>

The Following Cancellation fees may apply if we are not able to find a substitute booking for your cabin:

- 239 – 180 Days Prior to Sailing $ 50 per person charge for cancellation
- 179 – 120 Days Prior to Sailing $ 100 per person charge for cancellation
- 119 – 60 Days Prior to Sailing $ 200 per person charge for cancellation
- 59 - 30 Day Prior to Sailing 50% Charge for each cancellation
- 29 - to Sailing Date 100% charge for each Cancellation

For certain cruises and tours, different cancellation policies apply. Please consult the brochure for your cruise or tour to confirm the applicable cancellation policy. Given that the resales of cancelled space will likely result in a lost opportunity to sell other space, these fees are due regardless of resale. Fees incurred as a result of cancellation cannot be applied to future bookings. Refunds will normally be made to your travel agent. Travel agents may impose their own cancellation fees. Agency fees of any nature are a matter to be decided on solely by the agency and passengers.

Name changes require the prior approval of Royal Caribbean and may not always be possible. Cruise and Cruise Tour Contracts are nontransferable. Cruise Rates: Government taxes, fees and Service Charges are not included in the cruise rate. Airfare is additional. Taxes on airline transportation, air transportation, shore excursions, medical services, items of a personal nature—such as bar beverages, gift shop purchases, beauty salon/ barber shop & massage services, gambling and shore excursions -are not necessarily included in the cruise rate. The amount of taxes and charges specified herein are subject to change. Royal Caribbean reserves the right to pass through to the guests any increases which become effective after the printing of the brochure.

Service Charge: Royal Caribbean 's crew works very hard to make sure that every aspect of your cruise meets the highest standard. To ensure that the efforts of the Royal Caribbean crewmembers are recognized and rewarded, Royal Caribbean requires that the service charge be paid prior to departure. Current rate will be added to your invoice. If their service exceeds or fails to meet your expectations, you are free to adjust this amount at the end of the cruise.

Clothing: Casual attire is in order during the day. For two nights, a dark suit or formal attire is suggested. The dress code for other evenings ranges from sport coat and tie to casual resort wear.

Passport Data: US Immigration determines the correct documents; which guests must have in their possession in order to travel. Proper travel documentation is required throughout the cruise and is the responsibility of the guest. Any guest traveling without proper documentation will not be allowed to board the vessel and no refund of cruise fare will be issued. Documents must be presented at time of embarkation. All non-US citizens must surrender their passports and/or green cards and these documents will be returned by Immigration upon arrival back in the US. US and Canadian guests need proof of citizenship (Passport). You may also use a Government Issued ID like a State Driving License and a copy of your certified Birth Certificate. The Names on both documents must match exactly. If your driver's license is issued in another name versus your Birth Certificate, then you must provide certified copies of a marriage license, etc that validates the change in Name. Also, there are new requirements by TSA on Driving licenses issued by the Individual States. Some states might not have updated their format in time for the cruise or one issued already does not include the new requirements. Easiest and best option is to use your US Passport. Resident Aliens need both a passport and an Alien Residents Card. Non-US Citizens need a valid passport and a valid unexpired US multiple Re-Entry Visa. Non-US Citizens eligible to apply under Visa Waiver Program must have a valid unexpired Passport. You can check with the information on www.rcl.com, your local consulate or TSA to see what is required if you have a different situation.

Minor Guests: Guests under the age of 21 years must be accompanied by a parent, grandparent, or guardian 25 years or older in the same stateroom. Infants must be at least 4 months old to be eligible to travel. Royal Caribbean offers supervised activities for children 2-15 with limited activities available for 16-18 years old.

Responsibility: MOCHARA INTERNATIONAL neither controls, nor operates, nor is responsible for the actions of independent Contractors such as cruise lines, airlines, railroad companies, tour operators or ground transportation. You are responsible for arriving at the respective ports on time for embarkation and for joining the vessel at its next port of call if for any reason you miss a schedule sailing. Royal Caribbean reserves the right to refuse or discontinue passage to anyone when in Royal Caribbean 's judgment; it would be considered a risk to the guest's own safety and well-being or the health, safety, well-being comfort and enjoyment of any other guest or crewmember.
